A summer day of yogic play and exploration for children ages 6-12

The lessons we are exposed to in our youth have a profound impact on the way we choose to lead the rest of our lives. Children's minds, hearts, and bodies are able to assimilate new information with fluidity, grace, and a lighthearted delight in the process. Lily draws from six years of experience teaching dance to children and two years as the Yoga Instructor at Berkeley Montessori School to create a peaceful, nurturing, and creative environment to support each child in his or her unique journey into the realm of yoga.

Snack provided.

Each child should bring a bag lunch for our picnic by Strawberry Creek.

Limited to 12 children.
